Other Information:

Each year, the faculty invite selected applicants to campus for interviews. Although students who cannot arrange such an interview will not be excluded from consideration, the faculty regards these interviews as an important component in admission decisions. If we were to request an interview with you at the University of Kentucky, would you be willing to meet with us?

Special consideration will be given to ethnic minorities and applicants with disabilities.

Would you like to be considered as an ethnic minority?
If so, what is your ethnic background (optional)?

Would you like to be considered as an applicant with a disability?
If so, what is the basis for such consideration?

How did you learn about the doctoral program in psychology at the University of Kentucky?
