

Krista Monin Ramage, Ph.D.

University of Kentucky
Department of Psychology
211 Kastle Hall
Lexington, KY 40506
859-257-5451
krista.ramage@uky.edu

EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy in Psychology	December 2021
Grand Canyon University	Phoenix, AZ

Area of concentration: Cognition and Instruction

Dissertation: IAT measurement of implicit attitude based on the perceived activity level of weight people

Master of Arts in Psychology	December 2004
University of Louisville	Louisville, KY

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Communication	May 2003
Bellarmino University	Louisville, KY
Honors: magna cum laude

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Lecturer, Department of Psychology	2024-current
University of Kentucky	Lexington, KY

Teaching on-campus and online courses.

Classes taught: Introduction to Psychology, Experimental Psychology, Developmental Psychology.

Developed courses for new Applied Psychology major: Psychology in Everyday Life and Mental Health and Wellbeing.

Learning Management System: Canvas.

Adjunct Instructor, Department of Psychological Sciences	2019-2024
Western Kentucky University	Bowling Green, KY

Teaching online courses.

Classes taught: Developmental Psychology; Psychology of Adult Development and Aging.

Learning Management System: Blackboard.

Adjunct Instructor	2017-2024
Elizabethtown Community and Technological College	Elizabethtown, KY

Teaching on-campus, hybrid, and online courses for Elizabethtown and Springfield campuses, Hardin County Early College and Career Readiness Center.

Courses taught: General Psychology, Developmental Psychology, Human Relations, and Human Potential.

Learning Management System: Blackboard.

Adjunct Instructor 2017-2024
Jefferson Community and Technological College Louisville, KY
Teaching on-campus, hybrid, and online courses for Downtown and Bullitt County campuses.
Courses taught: General Psychology, Developmental Psychology, Essentials of Abnormal Psychology.
Learning Management System: Blackboard.

Adjunct Instructor, Department of Psychology 2017-2019
Western Kentucky University Elizabethtown, KY
Teaching on-campus and IVS courses for Elizabethtown campus.
Classes taught: Behavior Modification; Applied Cognitive Psychology.
Learning Management System: Blackboard.

Assistant Professor of Psychology 2015-2016
Instructor of Psychology 2010-2015
Distinguished Lecturer of Psychology 2009-2010
Adjunct Instructor of Psychology 2006-2009
St. Catharine College St. Catharine, KY
Taught a full load of courses on campus each semester: as adjunct, 6-15 hours; full time, 12-19 hours.
Courses taught: Introductory Psychology, Lifespan Development, Personality Theory, Career Seminar, Child and Adolescent Development, Adult Development, Social Psychology, Abnormal Psychology, Social Psychology, Learning and Cognition, Cognition, Gender Issues, and Psychopathology.
Developed and taught the following courses: Child and Adolescent Development, Adult Development, Social Psychology, and Sports Psychology.
Courses outside psychology: Patriot Paths 101, an introductory first-year class.
Advised BA and BS Psychology and Liberal Arts- Social Sciences majors.
Learning Management System: Sakai.

Graduate Teaching Assistant: Introduction to Psychology 2003-2004
University of Louisville Louisville, Kentucky
Taught two supplemental labs per week, including lecturing, leading discussions, administering quizzes, and holding office hours.
Coordinated and monitored research requirements for all class sections, 300-400 students each semester.
Proctored exams.

COMMITTEE WORK

Educational Policy Committee 2025-2026
University of Kentucky Lexington, KY
This committee advises the dean, the Executive Committee, departments and faculty on all educational policy matters related to teaching, research, and service. The Committee has the authority to make decisions on behalf of the faculty in approving or disapproving all proposals for new programs and courses and for changes in programs and courses.

Title IX Investigator 2016
St. Catharine College St. Catharine, KY
Received training to be a Title IX Investigator.

Faculty Government Senator 2015-2016
St. Catharine College St. Catharine, KY
Senator member of Faculty Government, whose function was the systematic and judicious creation, effective application, timely and efficient evaluation, and on-going revision of academic policy, procedure, programs, and curricula as determined by the needs of St. Catharine College.

Committee on Curricular Development 2009-2016
St. Catharine College St. Catharine, KY
This committee worked on aspects related to changes within academic programs at the college and reported to Faculty Government.

Academic Growth Committee 2010-2011
St. Catharine College St. Catharine, KY
This committee worked on academic-related issues such as a common hour and reported to Faculty Government.

DEPARTMENT SERVICE

TA Liaison 2025-current
University of Kentucky Lexington, KY
This department role serves to provide support to department teaching assistants. We hold several meetings each semester to meet with TAs to answer any questions and provide guidance. Additionally, we are available at any time to meet one-on-one with a TA for support.

Faculty Mentor 2025-current
University of Kentucky Lexington, KY
Provide support to Psychology majors for questions not related to advising. This can include help with internships, jobs, and graduate school information and advice. This consists of two set office hours per semester, as well as any additional support as needed.

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Social Service Designee 2005
Sansbury Care Center St. Catharine, Kentucky
Interim Social Service Director of care center for Dominican nuns and lay women. Completed quarterly and annual MDS assessments and care plans. Provided weekly visits with residents to monitor mood and check for needs and concerns. Attended weekly meetings and arranged transportation to medical appointments. Advocated for residents' rights and best interests.

PRESENTATIONS

Rumage, K. (2012, March). Feminist Parenting [Presentation during Women's History Month focused on feminist parenting and why it is essential in the push for equality for all]. St. Catharine, KY.

Rumage, K., Hostetler, H., Ramser, S., Smalley, L., & Wyrick, A. (2002, April). The correlation between spanking and future aggressive behavior. Mid-American Undergraduate Psychology Research Conference. Charleston, IL.

PAPER

Toder, H., & Rumage, K. (2012). Some thoughts about prejudice reduction. St. Catharine College Journal of Peace and Justice, 4.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant for Dr. Deborah Winders Davis 2003-2004
University of Louisville Louisville, KY
Research focused on parent-child interaction and attention in extremely low birth weight children. Tasks included data collection on the control group, data entry, assisting with IQ testing, and coding parent-child interactions while completing a puzzle.

HONORS AND AFFILIATIONS

Alpha Chi National College Honor Society, Grand Canyon University
Psi Chi National Psychology Honor Society, Grand Canyon University
2018 Volunteer of the Year, St. Joseph Montessori Children's Center

COMMUNITY SERVICE

SBDM Parent Representative 2017-2022
Bardstown Primary School, Bardstown Elementary School Bardstown, KY
The mission of both the Bardstown Primary School SBDM and the Bardstown Elementary School SBDM is to set school policy and make decisions that will provide an environment to improve student achievement and enable the teachers to impact the educational process.

School Board Member 2012-2014
St. Joseph Montessori Children's Center Nazareth, KY
The school board oversaw the school's functioning, including staffing and finances. Additionally, the board lead the organization of a large fundraising gala.